

Jesus was upset because people were focused on themselves, and not on God.

Write a prayer saying “sorry” to God.
We call this a “prayer of confession.”

When you are done, make sure to read what the wall says and remember you are forgiven!

TELL ME A STORY

Tell a story about a time you were angry.

- Did people know you were angry?
How did they know?
- What did you do to calm down?

BONUS ACTIVITY

Have an idea for calming down?

Write it on a post-it note and stick it on the poster!

PRAYING THE NEWS

- Pick an article or picture from a newspaper/magazine
- Consider how that story/picture might make God feel
- Say a short prayer and glue your clipping on the cross

WALKING THE LABYRINTH

- 1) Repeat this phrase as you walk:
“God, be with me”
- 2) Go to “start” and take a few deep breaths

3) Walk the labyrinth slowly, while meditating on your word. (This meditation could be simply repeating the word as you walk and noticing what comes to mind.)

START

Take a few good breaths, and begin.

FINISH

May God be with you this week.

Hands are for...

People in the temple used their hands to sell animals and lend money—taking advantage of those who traveled to the temple for Passover.

Jesus used his hands to turn over the tables, to point them out the door, and to remind them about what God wants.

To Do:

- On your hand cut-out, use words or pictures to show how YOU can use your hands to do God's work.
- Glue your hand on the light board, remembering God works through you.
- Bring a card featuring the prayer of St. Teresa of Avila home with you—read the prayer out loud at least once a day this week.

Sanctuary Sleuths

- 1) Pick a card
- 2) Answer the question on the card by investigating the sanctuary
- 3) When you have the answer, write your name and the answer and place the card in the “answered” basket!
